TESTIMONIALS

“Working with Banyan to buy Purity Life in 2012 was one of the best decisions I have made in my career. Over the past 10 years, Banyan has been a great partner both to me as a shareholder and to our business as a whole. I continue to be impressed by their commitment to operational excellence, leadership development and performance improvement.”

Matthew James,
CEO, Purity Life Health Products

“Since we partnered with Banyan in 2017, they have been instrumental in growing Rack Attack into the premier rack and adventure specialty retailer with over 30 locations across North America. As partners, they understand that capital is only one part of the equation and have helped us lay the foundation for long-term value creation in our business.”
